CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Christian Fellowship, the on-campus Protestant organization, is for those students who wish to examine the value of the Christian faith for their lives and practice it through their acts.

Samuel Butler once said, "People are equally horrified at hearing the Christian religion doubted, and at seeing it practiced." We believe it is important to express God's love in the world, and believing that we are called to unite our campus Christian students in a community of study, social life and helping people.

The more sensitive students and faculty seem to be attempting to break through the neat intellectual properties of their rationistic world in order to discover a deeper, more stable, and more satisfying life.

The following programs are indicative of programs which we sponsor:

Small group discussions on Faith and Ethics
Brown Bag luncheon discussions
Conferences with other Christian campus groups

Trips to New York and Washington, D.C.

Musical and drama productions

Task force on World Hunger

Task force on Nuclear Energy

People-to-People Program with Elderly

Over 175 students were involved in the last year in the various programs of Christian Fellowship. We hope that you will join with your fellow students in these interesting programs.

We can provide additional information. See our Advisor, Rev. Huffines.

THE CARPENTER'S SHOP

The Carpenter's Shop is the interdenominational Christian Fellowship on campus. Its membership, which transcends the Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish traditions, is unified by the love of Jesus, and experiences the abundant life he promises those who follow Him. We are dedicated to the spiritual growth of the college community, and hold meetings at 11:00 A.M. on Tuesday and Thursday in the Student Union. In addition to Christian fellowship, we have movies, guest speakers, coffeehouses, and a radio show or contemporary Christian music programs. It is hosted by Rick Odess, each Saturday. Our prayer is that each of you will not only attend our meetings, but also experience the joy that we share in this fellowship.

The system is used in conjunction with classroom instruction and is utilized by many of the instructors to supplement their courses.

REFERENCE SERVICES

In addition to the general reference resources, there is a collection of telephone books, college catalogs, and a vertical file of pamphlet materials.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

Books having a special interest or value because of rarity, fine binding, or former ownership are kept in the special collections area. Research materials are available on such subjects as early textbooks, Abraham Lincoln, Charles Dickens, and some local and college history.

NEWSPAPERS

Newspapers covering several regions, countries, and opinions can be found on counters adjacent to the periodicals of the current year. The library also has microfilm collections of several newspapers.

PERIODICALS

The periodicals are located on the ground and first floors and a carousel located at the periodical kiosk has a list of all holdings, as well as all missing issues, by volume and date.

Periodicals are arranged alphabetically in three divisions. Current periodicals are located on lift up shelves on the first floor. Journals from the previous ten years are located in an adjacent section, and all other journals will be found on the ground floor.

GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS

Official publications of the United States and Massachusetts are located on the first floor. A list of the library's holdings in this section is located adjacent to the documents shelf. Special indexes such as the MONTHLY CATALOG OF U.S. GOVERNMENT PUBLICATIONS, PUBLIC AFFAIRS INFORMATION SERVICE, and MASSACHUSETTS PUBLICATIONS are located on an index table.

OTHER SERVICES

CURRICULUM LIBRARY

Special materials and services for the student of the teacher education program at Bridgewater will be found in the Curriculum Library. The emphasis is on materials that can be used for preparation of lessons, curriculum planning, teaching of lessons, and evaluation of students.

The Student Union

Letter from Rick Veno

On behalf of the nearly 300 people who contribute their time and energy to the Student Union, I wish to extend a warm and enthusiastic welcome to you as new students at Bridgewater State College. Our Student Union has much to offer, being one of the largest and finest facilities of its type in the East. We strive to offer a balanced program of educational, cultural, and recreational activities in order to enhance your total learning experience here at Bridgewater State College. Although our facility is truly outstanding, I personally take the greatest pride in the extensive student, faculty, and staff participation in our services and programs.

Our goal is to be an exciting center of activity for the entire College community, and in order to accomplish this, we need you. Please take advantage of our many services and programs. If you find that they do not meet your needs as an individual or group, please contact my office or leave suggestions in the box located on the ground floor outside the Commuter Cafeteria. All suggestions will be channeled to the proper subcommittee of the Board of Governors or Program Committee for consideration.

I hope that you enjoy your years at Bridgewater and grow from the total experience, and that the Student Union will have been some part of the enrichment of your life.

Facilities offered at B.S.C.

Facilities Offered:

The BSC Student Union has twenty-seven various types of facilities. Offered to the college community are meeting and classrooms, four dining facilities, a ballroom complex, auditorium, hobby shop, and lounge areas. Also housed within the Union are the bookstore, gameroom, Rathskeller, T.V. studio, radio station and music rooms.

The facilities are there to service the entire college's organizations. The diversified offering should be capable of meeting the sundry activities of all campus groups.

Since the Union complex is so large, there is a need for procedures for using any of the facilities. These procedures are established by the B.O.G. in cooperation with the Director's Office in order to produce maximum use. Without the regulations there would be chaos and conflict in room scheduling.

Any organization interested in reserving one of the Union's facilities should contact Jean Carson. Mrs. Carson, who can be located in the Director's Office, is in charge of room scheduling, and available to assist those who might need help with facility usage.

WBIM—FM

WBIM, the college operated radio station, is located on the third floor of the Student Union Building, and can be found at 91.5 on your FM radio dial.

WBIM plays rock, disco, folk, country and western, classical, and just about any other kind of music you can think of.

This year promises to be a good one, with Robin Pearl as Program Director, and Rick Odess as Music Director.

WBIM is always in need of help, so if you are interested, see Robin or Rick.

Video TV Offers Students a Chance to Produce

The videotape studio is located on the main floor of the S.U. The studio has been primarily used for classes in television offered by the instructional media department. However, recently through a combined effort of the S.U. and the instructional media department the studio was made available to the entire student population interested in learning about television and videotape.

In the past, student shows have been produced and shown on the monitors located in the S.U.

Besides the studio, the S.U. provides coverage of many sports events, guest speakers, and performers through the use of its portable camera. Using the portable equipment, we have videotaped football, hockey, basketball, and field hockey, to name a few. Primarily home games are videotaped, but our cameras have traveled as far as Maine to bring football coverage to student body. Videotaping these sporting events offers students a chance to see games they perhaps could not attend, as well as provide entertainment throughout the day.

In videotaping the S.U. has had the honor of taping such people as Senator Edward M. Kennedy, hypnotist and actor James Mapes, the Claude Kipnis Mime Show, and Vincent Bugliosi, author of the best seller, Helter Skelter. Through the videotaping of events like these, students are provided with entertainment and a chance to experience the process of producing and taping their own show. With the growing interest in television, the S.U. Videotape Program is an important asset, not only in providing entertainment but by providing experience and knowledge as well.

Currently being produced is a weekly Video Program called "Space Parts." The show consists of various segments such as campus news, sports, calendar, highlights of various social, cultural and educational programs as well as some humorous sidelights. The show can be seen on the video monitors in the Student Union Foyer.

Al Silva

Fellow Students:

I have the pleasant task of welcoming you to Bridgewater State College. The number of students attending this institution is relatively small (about 4,000); the people are friendly and you can meet a lot of new people. I personally look forward to meeting quite a few of you and hopefully working with a few of you.

During your stay here you will probably hear the term college community quite often. This concept implies that students, faculty, and administrators work together in the functioning of Bridgewater State College. It means that we have rights as students but with these rights come responsibilities. The structure exists (in the form of All-College Committees) for students to have their opinions about what happens at this school heard. But students have to want this input; they have to volunteer (to me) to be on these committees. There is no reason why new students, both freshmen and transfers, can't serve on these committees if they express an interest soon enough.

You will find Bridgewater to be an interesting place. Our Rathskeller is an excellent pub and the Student Union Building is one of the finest in the country in terms of diversity of programs. It seems as though there are lectures or bands or coffee-houses going on every week.

The college experience is not just an academic one. There is a lot more to learn on a campus like Bridgewater than just what goes on in the classrooms. But the overall learning experience a student derives is measured by how much that student puts into it and by the things he gets involved in. I hope many of you will take the time to help make this a better and more interesting place for all of us. See you in the fall.

Sincerely,

Al Silva

Finest in New England

The Rathskeller at Bridgewater State College is certainly one of the finest and unique college Rathskellers or pubs in New England and perhaps in the country.

To the average customer it is a comfortable room in which to have a beer, relax, have dinner, and a place to meet friends. To those of us who have been the Rathskeller's development since 1972, its history, policy, and future development is a critical issue, and we are continually struggling each member of the Bridgewater State College community to know how directly involved they are in its success or failure.

When we first requested a license, nearly five years ago, we were met with opposition from a neighborhood group who felt that the Rathskeller would produce noise, traffic, and disturbances. For the next two years we were engaged in a series of town meetings, local civic and church organizations' discussions, and legal battles which eventually through the patience and good judgement of the students involved, resulted in us being granted the license we presently have. During the two years without a license, our discussions with many people involved a number of points to which we still subscribe. For example, none of us who operate the Rathskeller think it is a place simply to pump beer. It is an integral part of the Student Union and so, college community. It is designed to enhance the social atmosphere of our college and, in a real sense, to bring us together.

Some of the policies unique to our Rathskeller are that admission is limited to only members of the college community, who must produce proof of their age and identity by college I.D. Those of you who refused admission because you left your I.D. in the dormitory or at home must realize that it is not our choice to inconvenience you. We are committed to running one of the most highly controlled establishments we know of and of keeping our good faith with the community which granted us the original license and reissues it to us each year.

The policies of the Rathskeller are best understood by understanding the Student Union itself. Our Student Union Board of Governors works with the Director and staff to develop policies for operational concerns, inventory, cash flow, admissions procedures, standards of behavior, and conditions of general atmosphere. All student employees, Rathskeller security and managers who are directly part of the Rathskeller have far more than casual commitment to a job. They all understand how easy it would be for any disruptive behavior (or violation of state, town, or college law or policy) to result in a large, empty, dark room. This would be a waste of too many people's effort over period.

The Rathskeller here at Bridgewater is the envy of every other college in New England. Its decor and atmosphere make it the kind of facility we can all be proud of. Open since March of 1974, it has served the social needs of many Bridgewater students. Since these needs are varied, the "Rat" tries to offer something for everyone.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights are traditionally "party" nights. The accent is on rock and disco with live entertainment frequently featured. For those who desire a more relaxed atmosphere, movies and folksingers appear regularly. Days when there are no scheduled programs, a juke box full of popular songs is available.

The Rathskeller opens at 4:00 on weekdays and your validated Bridgewater State I.D. proving you are 18 years or older is all that is needed for admittance. A staff of friendly students eagerly awaits you.

We offer a wide variety of beer, both draught and bottled, as well as several popular wines. All are at reasonable prices. You are also invited to take advantage of our new and expanded food menu.

Located on the ground floor of the Student Union (next to the T.V. Lounge), the Rathskeller can accommodate 225 people comfortably. Our policies and schedule of events are posted on the bulletin board outside the entrance. Try us out! We're looking forward to seeing and serving you soon.

The "Rat" good food and a good time

RATHSKELLER HOURS:

Sunday--8 pm - 11 pm

Monday-Thursday--4 pm-11 pm

Friday--4 pm-midnight

Saturday--8 pm- midnight

Our Student Union and Rathskeller have been called the "Best in the East," and have been a source of enjoyment and pride since their opening. The Rathskeller in particular has become one of the most popular places for the College community to socialize, enjoy a wide variety of entertainment, and good food and drink. As recent alumni return, they invariably comment on what the campus was like without it during the many months of discussion to secure a license.

The Rathskeller, like most Student Union programs, can only operate with your continued active support.

We ask each and every student to dedicate him/herself to the appropriate use of the Student Union and the Rathskeller and to give leadership and guidance to other students so that the Student Union and the Rathskeller personnel and facilities may have the enthusiastic support and appreciation they so richly deserve.

Eight years ago, the Student Union was built because we were united in our support. Three years ago, the Rathskeller opened because of that same unity. Again today, we ask for your participation in the enjoyment of and pride in our Rathskeller.

Sincerely,

A couple of the "Rats" cheerful employees;

Dear Friends,

The Catholic Center is that Community of Believers — Faculty, Administration, Students, Staff and Neighbors — who are part of this Campus where we eat and sleep, study and play, worship and pray, live and love.

The Center is a religious, cultural, and academic place — A Community — where, in a special way we become aware not only of ourselves, but aware of one another.

The Center is people who work very hard to develop an atmosphere and a climate of activity, learning and prayer. Tony and I are truly grateful for the time and effort given by so many to the Center. You make our presence here a more pleasurable experience. Through all these endeavors we recognize that we are a pilgrim people seeking the truth about ourselves and our God.

Above all, we want you to know that the staff at the Catholic Center is ready to serve you at any time. You are the reason we are here. We will be happy to respond to any questions you have about the Church, or to lend a friendly ear in time of need. So, feel free to drop by, and get to know us.

With best wishes for the coming year!
